LAND VALUES

Record-breaking low supply and rising demand are elements that have stood out for the land market so far in 2020. The property market was hit hard by the coronavirus pandemic, but the market for blocks of bare land, in contrast, remains strong.

Indeed, the land market has a strong track record of not being very affected in times of economic uncertainty. Land remains a stable, tangible asset seen as a safe haven by investors for their capital.

Land continues to be in considerable demand for capital investment for many non-farming reasons, including development potential, privacy, tax reasons, or amenity use.

METHOD OF SALE

The land is offered for sale by private treaty as a whole or in lots. The freehold is available with vacant possession on completion.

ACCESS

Both lots enjoy road frontage onto Berrowhill Lane and benefit from a shared private gated access point (shown blue on the site plan).

HOUSE PRICES

The land is situated in an extremely affluent area. House prices in Feckenham are 48% above the county average and 74% above the regional average (Zoopla).

These premium house prices reflect the desirability of the area as a place to live and own property – including land.

OVERAGE

Uniquely there are no overage payments on this land – rare in today's land market.

PLANNING

The land is designated as Green Belt. Any development would be subject to the appropriate planning permission.

LEISURE & EQUESTRIAN

The site lies on the edge of Feckenham, a very sought-after rural community with a traditional village green, a cricket club and an abundance of well-marked walking and riding routes.

A range of community activities includes an annual two-day horse show, and a tri-annual Feckenham Flower and Garden Festival. There is an annual Summer Fair, which has a Royal Charter and Spring and Autumn Flower Shows.

The surrounding countryside is an idyllic place to explore. There is even a nature reserve at nearby Wylde Moor, where you can see a selection of wild flowers, insects and birds.

The land offers great potential for those looking to use the land for equestrian use as it is perfectly situated in the centre of an extensive network of bridleways.

Access to these bridle paths is off Berrowhill Lane just 0.1 miles north of the site.

The Monarch's Way is a historic 615 mile long-distance footpath that passes approximately 1.5 miles to the east Feckenham. It follows the escape route taken by King Charles II in 1651 after being defeated in the Battle of Worcester.

This footpath takes you through two World Heritage Sites, one National Park and six Areas of Outstanding Natural Beauty plus some of the finest scenery in western and southern England.

Nearby Redditch is home to the 900 acre Arrow Valley Country Park & Lake. The park includes a Local Nature Reserve, a lakeside café, gift shop, children's play area and a skate park. The lake is also used for water sports. There are four waymarked trails for walking and riding throughout the park.

A range of attractions can also be found farther afield including the iconic Malvern Hills Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty and the hugely popular tourist town of Stratford-upon-Avon – the birthplace of William Shakespeare.

Please note, the grazing land had just been topped in this photo.
