Just over 3 miles west of Tring, the area has a lovely rural charm, whilst still benefitting from urban convenience and easy commuting.

Tring is a charming market town within the London commuter belt. It has a wealth of independently run shops, cafes, bars and restaurants that give the area a unique character and charm.

In contrast, the nearby popular town of Aylesbury offers visitors both the history and heritage of its old quarter as well as the major retail and recreational amenities of a modern town. It is also home to the new £42 million Aylesbury Waterside Theatre, where the surrounding area has been redeveloped as part of a multi-million pound Waterside project.

Further afield, along the A41, lie the popular shopping destinations of Watford & Bicester.

The site benefits from being in close proximity to major travel links. The nearby A41 provides a fast, direct link to the M25 and Aylesbury and Tring train stations, which offer frequent and direct trains to London in as little as 35 minutes.

This lush, flat grazing land is bordered in the main by mature hedgerow and fencing.

LAND VALUES

Despite the Brexit-related uncertainties, the farmland market has proven more resilient than many might have predicted as land prices in the region increased by up to 4% last year.

Robust demand and limited supply help to explain why the land market remains relatively steady. Supply of farmland saw a year-on-year decline of 48% (Carter Jonas).

Investors have played an increasing role in the farmland market with over 1-in-5 new buyers citing investment as the key reason for buying last year (Savills). Land continues to be an appealing and tangible asset that remains in considerable demand for capital investment.

LEISURE & EQUESTRIAN

For the equestrian user there is a bridleway just ¼ mile away. This 2 mile bridlepath leads all the way to the Hamlet of Broughton in East Aylesbury.

To the south lies the Aylesbury Arm of the Grand Union Canal where walkers can enjoy the scenic Grand Union Canal towpath, which joins the Aylesbury Ring circular walk.

There are a wealth of tourist attractions close to the site including the Natural History Museum at Tring and Whipsnade Zoo – the UK's largest zoo.

Wendover Woods to the south offers a great day out. With miles of footpaths & bridleways, a new café, a children's adventure playground and play trails, there is something for everyone.

Waddesdon Manor is a short drive west of the land. With stunning views Waddesdon Manor is an award winning country house and one of the National Trust's most visited properties. It's not hard to see why with its beautiful gardens, dramatic architecture, exhibitions and a variety of restaurants and shops.
